21 Railroad Corporations and X-Rays..	102
22 Caution in the Selection of X-Ray Apparatus	102
23 Improvement in Induction Coll.....	104
24 X-Ray Notes	105
25 X-Rays and Birth Rate	106
26 Human Lorgnette	106
27 X-Rays and Transplanted Bone.....	106
28 X-Rays and the Magnet	106

20 Radiography Applied to the Surgery of the Nervous System	106
30 X-Ray and Bone Surgery Indispens- able	106
31 Success of the X-Ray Journal.....	107
32 Synonymous Words for X-Ray Pic- tures	107
33 Electricity and Light Mains	107
34 Wit and Humor	107
35 Book Reviews	108

ILLUSTRATIONS.

1 Carl Beck's X-Ray Office, Photo.....	82
2 Bullet in Elbow	83
3 Fracture of Fourth Metacarpal Bone..	83
4 Colles Fracture	84
5 Colles Fracture and Styoid Prean of Ulva	84
6 Colles Fracture Three Hours Ago....	85
7 Colles Fracture and Callus	85
8 Fracture of Olecranon	86
9 Violent Union of Femur	86
10 Osteo-Sarcoma of Right Radius.....	87
11 Partial Resection of Ankle	87
12 Resection of Knee	88
13 Compound Fracture Tibia by Bullet..	89
14 Normal Head Brain Enveloped.....	90
15 Plate with Five X-Ray Pictures Showing Permanent and Deciduous Teeth, Nerves Shown	92
16 Solid Quartz Showing Gold	93
17 Radiograph of Penny in Esophagus...	94

SUBJECTS, NOVEMBER, 1897.

1 Editorials	95
2 Progress of the American X-Ray Jour- nal	111
3 Roentgen Rays and the Blind.....	112
